

Where are you going to be after voters finish determining the future of the United States and we're all waiting to hear their verdict?

When you look back, what do you want to remember that you were doing at this historic time?

How about attending an ...

Election Night Gala!

... watching the returns roll in while eating, drinking, & chatting with students, administrators, staff, and faculty from a variety of majors on the University of Kentucky campus?
